NTT DATA received the SAM Sustainability Award 2019 as a “Gold class”
-The world’s leading Sustainability Assessment-

NTT DATA Corporation

April 17, 2019

NTT DATA Corporation received the RobecoSAM Sustainability Award 2019 as a “Gold Class” by RobecoSAM, a Swiss SRI evaluation company and research agency.

Under the corporate philosophy of “creating new systems and values with information technology for a more affluent and harmonious society,” NTT DATA will aim to improve our corporate value through IT service businesses and contribute to building a sustainable society on a global scale.

[The RobecoSAM Sustainability Award]
The RobecoSAM Sustainability Award is given by evaluating sustainability by RobecoSAM. Each year, they assess corporate sustainability from the three aspects: “Economy”, “Environment”, and “Society”, and select outstanding companies in a comprehensive manner. From the perspective of sustainability, companies ranked high in each industry category are selected as a “Gold Class”, “Silver Class”, and “Bronze Class”.

In 2019, of about 2,700 major companies around the world, 66 (5 from Japan) received the RobecoSAM Sustainability Award as a “Gold Class”.

NTT DATA received high marks for 7 out of 20 evaluation items, including “Risk Management”, “Environmental Management”, and “Human Resource Development”. As a result, Our Company was selected as a “Gold Class”.

[NTT DATA Group’s Sustainable Activities]
NTT DATA Group has so far implemented activities in line with “Material CSR Challenges*1” based on Our Way*2, the guidelines for our CSR activities, and promoted measures for building the foundation of CSR management to respond to social expectations.
From here on, we will carry out global business activities from the ESG viewpoint. In addition, we will step up efforts to disseminate information related to ESG and resolve social issues in order to respond to the expectations of stakeholders.

*1 Material CSR Challenges: They present the concept and direction of CSR activities in the NTT DATA Group.

*2 Our Way: A summary of corporate philosophy on which management should be based and the values to be shared among employees.
